Terms and Conditions

1. All products include 30 day technical support via e-mail and telephone from the date of purchase and software patches for the same version with the same major and minor release numbers (for example, version 1.2.x) via web site downloads.
2. Products purchased directly from ProtoDesign, Inc. can be returned for a full refund (less shipping and handling charges) within 30 days from the date of purchase and before the permanent license key is sent from ProtoDesign, Inc. No refund will be given after 30 days or after the permanent license key is sent, whichever comes first. Our resellers' return policies may vary.
3. The educational licenses are available only to students, faculty, and research staff of non-profit, degree granting educational institutions. Please check the End User License Agreement for the restrictions on educational licenses. To qualify for the educational discount, you need to provide an educational e-mail address and one of the following:
 - An educational institution shipping address.
 - A copy of the front and back of your currently valid student, faculty, or staff identification card.
4. Pricing, Terms and Conditions subject to change without notice.
